

Pumpkin

A lady had recently been baptized. When she went to work, one of her coworkers asked her what it was like to be a Christian. She was caught off guard and didn't really know how to answer, but when she looked up, she saw a jack-o-lantern on the desk and answered, "Well, it's a lot like being a pumpkin." The worker asked her to explain that one. "Well God picks you from the patch and brings you in and washes off the dirt on the outside. Then God removes all the yucky stuff from the inside. He removes all those seeds of doubt, hate, greed, etc. You feel really great. He carves you a new smiling face and then, He puts His Light inside you to shine for all to see.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

Reality Check

1. Eventually you will reach a point when you stop lying about your age and start bragging about it.
2. Don't let anyone tell you you're getting old. Squash their toes with your walker.
3. The older we get, the fewer things seem worth waiting in line for.
4. Some people try to turn back their odometers. Not me. I want people to know why I look this way. I've traveled a long way and some of the roads weren't paved.
5. Maturity means being emotionally and mentally healthy. It is that time when you know when to say yes and when to say no, and when to say WHOOPPEE!
6. How old would you be if you didn't know how old you are?
7. When you are dissatisfied and would like to go back to you, just think of Algebra
8. You know you are getting old when everything either dries up or leaks.
9. I don't know how I got over the hill without getting to the top.
10. The golden years are really just metallic years: gold in the tooth, silver in your hair and lead in the rear.
11. One of the many things no one tells you about aging is that it is such a nice change from being young.
12. Age seldom arrives smoothly or quickly. It is more often a succession of jerks. Yeah, being young is beautiful but being old is comfortable.
13. Old age is when former classmates are so gray and wrinkled and blind that they don't recognize you.
14. If you don't learn to laugh at trouble, you won't have anything to laugh at when you are old.
15. One must wait until evening to see how splendid the day has been.

Amen.

As we know, the COVID-19 pandemic has caused grief and pain in all parts of the world, particularly causing great suffering among people living in countries that are least able to confront the disease. Cambodia is one of those countries. Recognizing the need of our Cambodian Lutheran brothers and sisters and their communities, Lutheran Church–Canada has established a relief aid project to provide food and support to those living in the countryside, who are in danger of starving as a result of basic goods becoming scarce and unaffordable during this pandemic.

In cooperation with our sister church, Cambodia Lutheran Church (CLC) and the Garuna Foundation, Lutheran Church–Canada has provided funds to purchase and distribute food and emergency supplies to the various congregations that are most in need of aid at this time. The Board of Directors of CLC and their staff have been delivering and distributing aid to congregations in Kampong Chhnang, Kampot, Kampong Speu, Sihanoukville and Prey Veh. Along with addressing the physical needs of the people in these communities, they are also looking to address the spiritual needs of the people by sharing with them the Gospel, providing pastoral care, offering encouragement through the Word of God and praying for and with them.
